What is Group Term Life Insurance?

Group Term Life Insurance is offered through your employer and pays a benefit to your beneficiary if you pass away during a specific period of time (known as a “term”). The term of this coverage is generally one year, renewing on an annual basis with your other employer-offered benefits. Your employer offers Basic Life Insurance and Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance, which is the amount they provide at no cost to you.

What is Accidental Death and Dismemberment (AD&D) Insurance?

AD&D Insurance pays a benefit to you or your beneficiary, separate from the life insurance benefit, if you are severely injured or die as the result of a covered accident. This coverage is part of the Group Term Life Insurance offered through your employer.

How can life insurance help?

Below are a few examples of how your life insurance benefit could be used (coverage amounts may vary):

- Pay off any remaining medical bills, funeral costs and debts
- Provide ongoing financial support to your family
- Keep your family in your home by paying off the mortgage
- Fund your children's education

Who is eligible for life insurance?

- You—all active employees working 16+ hours per week.
- Your spouse*— If your spouse is covered under the policy as an employee, then your spouse is not eligible for coverage under the spouse rider/benefit.
- Your children— If both you and your spouse are covered under the policy as employees, then only one, but not both, may cover the same children under the children's rider/benefit. If the parent who is covering the children stops being insured as an employee, then the other parent may apply for children's coverage.

Meet the Wilsons

Mark and Jodi Wilson had a busy life filled with work, sports and their three children. Mark was the breadwinner of the family and worked as a construction manager. Jodi had quit her job to stay home with the children when their second child was born. Mark had been suffering from recurring headaches and, after seeing many doctors, was diagnosed with an inoperable brain tumor. Fortunately for the Wilson family, Mark had elected Group Term Life Insurance coverage through his employer. When Mark passed away, Jodi was able to use the life insurance proceeds to pay off the remaining home mortgage and cover Mark's funeral. There was even enough money to support the family while she transitioned from being a stay-at-home mother to a working single parent.

Expenses covered by Mark's Life Insurance Proceeds:

$180,000	Total Life Insurance Proceeds
-$8,000	Funeral Costs
-$75,000	Remaining Mortgage
$97,000	Everyday Expenses (utilities, car, groceries, etc.)

The amounts shown are an example only. Actual costs/results may vary.
