It can take time to recover from a disabling illness or injury. When that time extends past your Short Term Disability coverage, Long Term Disability Income Insurance can help. This document includes cost and coverage information about Long Term Disability Income Insurance. As you explore, keep in mind:

No medical questions or tests are required for coverage

Group pricing makes coverage more cost-effective

Work with your own dedicated claim analyst throughout your leave

More than one in four of today's 20-year-olds can expect to be out of work for at least a year because of a disabling condition before they reach retirement age.¹ Help to keep a portion of your income protected with the Long Term Disability Income Insurance that's available through your employer.

Get basic coverage at no cost

Your employer is providing basic Long Term Disability Income Insurance at no cost to you. This means that if a disabling illness or injury prevents you from working, and your Short Term Disability coverage has run out, you'll still be able to replace a portion of your income.

Coverage Amount

60% of your monthly earnings

Minimum monthly benefit: greater of $100 or 10% of gross monthly benefit

Maximum monthly benefit: $6,000

Waiting period

Waiting period: 90 consecutive days within 180 calendar days.

Any days that you are able to work after the start of your disability will not count toward your waiting (elimination) period. You may be eligible for Short Term Disability payments during this time or you may use your available time off and/or sick time during this waiting period.

Evidence of Insurability (health questions)

You do not need to provide evidence of insurability to be covered.

How long benefit payments last

Long Term Disability Income benefits are available until you recover from your disability, or until you reach the maximum period of payment listed below.

Maximum Period of Payment

Your Age When Disability Begins	Maximum Period of Payment
Less than age 60	To age 65, but not less than 5 years
Age 60-64	5 years
Age 65-69	To age 70, but not less than 1 year
Age 70 and over	1 year

Exclusions & Limitations

Benefits are not payable if your disability is caused by, contributed to or resulting from:

- Loss of a professional or occupational license or certification
- Commission of or attempt to commit a felony
- Intentionally self-inflicted injuries
- Attempted suicide, regardless of mental capacity
- Being legally intoxicated or being under the influence of any narcotic, unless taken under the direction of and as directed by a doctor

- Participation in a war, declared or undeclared, or any act of war
- Active military duty
- Active participation in a riot
- Engaging in any illegal or fraudulent occupation, work or employment
- Commission of a crime for which you have been convicted
- Elective surgery, except when required for your appropriate care as a result of your injury or sickness

Traveling or flying on an aircraft operated by or under the authority of military or any aircraft being used for experimental purposes

Pre-existing conditions: A pre-existing condition is a sickness, injury or physical condition that led to medical treatment, consultation, care or services (including diagnostic measures) during the 3 month period before your coverage effective date. Benefits are not payable if your disability begins in the first 12 months after your coverage effective date, and your disability is caused by, contributed by, or the result of a pre-existing condition.

Your benefits may be limited to a shorter time period, such as 24 months during your lifetime, if:

- The disability is due to a mental illness, alcoholism or drug abuse.
- The disability is due to a special condition as defined in the certificate, such as fibromyalgia or chronic fatigue syndrome.

Your benefits will be reduced by other income (deductible sources of income) you are eligible to receive while disabled. These include but aren't limited to:

- Income received from any form of employment
- Unemployment benefits and any type of income replacement provided by your employer
- Workers' Compensation benefits or benefits from similar programs
- Judgments or settlements you receive related to disability
- Disability or retirement payments under Social Security or other federal and state plans
- Disability income payments under automobile liability insurance benefits
- Disability income payments payable under any other group insurance policy and certain retirement payments provided under your employer's retirement plan

*Limitations and exclusions will vary by state and by your employer's benefit plan.
